Is Life Worth Living?

That depends upon the Liver. If the Liver is inactive the whole system is out of order—the breath is bad, digestion poor, head dull or aching, energy and hopefulness gone, the spirit is depressed, a heavy weight exists after eating, with general despondency and the blues. The Liver is the housekeeper of the health; and a harmless, simple remedy that acts like Nature, does not constipate afterwards or require constant taking, does not interfere with business or pleasure during its use, makes Simmons Liver Regulator a medical perfection.

I have tested its virtues personally, and know that for Dyspepsia, Biliousness and Churning Headache, it is the best medicine the world ever saw. Have tried forty other remedies before Simmons Liver Regulator, and none of them gave more than temporary relief, but the Regulator not only relieved but cured.

An Old Circus Rider's Story.
Old Eaton Stone, the circus rider, lives on an eighteen acre farm near this village. He is almost as active as he was years ago, when his daring feats on horseback made him famous all over the world. He is seventy-four years old, but keeps constantly busy. When he has nothing else to do he gets out his oil colors and adds to the unique decoration of the ancient farmhouse in which he resides. Nothing exactly like Mr. Stone's painting is to be found elsewhere, and what he has done in a score of years must have kept him well employed. Almost everything in the house is decorated. Red of the brightest vermilion hue, green which rivals the grass in June, yellow which would do credit to the daffodil and blue of the most lively shade, go into all his scrolls, stars, flowers, stripes and nondescript figures.

The ceiling of the dining room is hidden in wonderful designs traced in vivid colors. There is no attempt at blending or compounding colors. They are laid on as they come from the pots and tubes, and the patterns are original creations. Even the stove has come in for a base line of vivid decoration, and one of the two clocks in the room is completely covered with paint. The picture frames are decorated; the mantel has a generous share of decoration; the oilcloth table covers have added designs the maker never contemplated, and even the chairs have been treated to a display of the old man's handwork. On the walls, and even on the doors, he has oil paintings and compositions from his brush. They are not high art, but they are very effective and show considerable genius.

The Muscular Strength of a Trout.
We sat for an hour or more on the east bank of the Beavercreek at Rockland and watched the trout of that celebrated river passing over the dam, which is nearly three feet high, with about a 4-inch volume of water pouring over it. The trout ranged in size from ten to eighteen inches, and during the time we sat there at least twenty managed to get over. In many instances a first attempt failed, owing, however, more to an apparent want of judgment, or perhaps of experience, than from lack of physical ability in the fish to accomplish the feat, the smaller fish as a rule failing to get over in the first effort.

But few of the larger fish made a clean jump into the smooth water above the apron of the dam; most of them passed perpendicularly up the falling waters and with apparent ease. These fish were enabled to swim straight up this downpour of the waters by the great muscular power they possessed; there was no trick, no sleight of hand about it—it was pure strength of body, which is evidently centered in the peduncle or tail and the tail fin.

They actually sculled their bodies up this comparatively dense mass of water. The query naturally arises: If a 10-inch trout can swim up such a fall, what is the capacity of a salmon of forty inches under similar conditions?—American Angler.

THE PEOPLE'S PARTY.

The Republican party sprang into existence at a time when, as William H. Seward expressed it, there was an irrepressible conflict between freedom and slavery. The slave owning oligarchy dominated Congress and controlled the Federal Government. It was immaterial to the masses whether the Whigs or the Democrats prevailed in national elections, the slave power dictated legislation and the policy of the Government. The Republican party, composed of men few of whom had even a State reputation and a majority of whom were denounced by the old parties as cranks or fanatics. The masses, however, were with the cranks, who soon proved themselves to be statesmen of the highest ability and the party which was reviled and belittled by the oligarchs became the dominant party in the United States. The people were with the new movement.

To-day the monied oligarchy is more arrogant than was the slave holding oligarchy at the birth of the Republican party. It controls the national conventions of the old parties and has sufficient influence in the halls of Congress to form a combination between Republicans led by Reed of Maine and Democrats marshalled by Tracey of New York and Harter of Ohio to defeat a bill to restore silver to the position which the framers of the constitution designed for it and which it was accorded from the establishment of the mints in 1792 to the passage of the Deminutization Act in 1873. The masses are as powerless as they were in 1873 in directing legislation and the policy of the Government.

The masses are patient and endure wrongs from those entrusted with the management of public affairs so long as there is reasonable hope of redress. They have submitted to the decrees of European money powers and their American agents in and outside of Wall Street until forbearance ceases to be a virtue. They have listened to demagogues of both the old parties with abiding faith until they have discovered that they have been out-generaled, villainously deceived. Now they propose to rise in their might, exercise the power which intelligence and numerical strength gives them, and liberate themselves from the shackles of Wall Street, which, while blinded by party prejudice, they assisted in riveting on themselves.

This uprising of the people is general. It is not confined to Nevada or to the Silver States. It extends from the St. Lawrence to the Gulf of Mexico; from the Atlantic to the Pacific. It means the breaking up of the "solid West" as well as of the "solid South." It takes Kansas with its 80,000 majority out of the Republican ranks and removes Alabama with its 97,000 majority from the Democratic column. It will abolish the last vestige of sectionalism and give us a government of the people; one for the masses, not for the classes; one for the whole people not for a favored few.

The people are aroused throughout the whole country; they propose to take the reins in their own hands and "keep in the middle of the road."

MUST NAME THE CANDIDATES.

An Act relating to elections and to more fully secure the secrecy of the ballot provides, among other things, that: "The names of the candidates for each office shall be arranged under the designation of the office in alphabetical order, according to surname, except that the names of candidates for Presidential Electors shall be arranged in groups as presented in the several certificates of nomination, and the names of the candidates for President and Vice President shall precede the proper groups of Presidential Electors; the political designation of each candidate shall be printed opposite his name."

This will necessitate the endorsement of Weaver by the Silver party as the name of the candidate for President must head the electoral ticket and the political designation of each candidate, including, of course, the President, must be printed opposite his name.

It is probable that a State Convention of the Silver party, that is a convention of delegates selected by the Silver Leagues, will be held to endorse the People's candidates for President and Vice President of the United States.

"There will be about three hundred votes polled at Lovelock this year and 50 per cent. of the total vote will be for Weaver." So say men who claim to know.

THE REPUBLICAN STATE CONVENTION.

The Republican State Convention met here yesterday afternoon. Though the attendance was not very large and in point of numbers did not compare with the late State Silver Convention, one hall could not contain the incongruous elements of which the body was composed, and the Harrison men, comprising about one-third of the delegates, assembled in another hall, leaving the Silver League men, who were largely in the majority, in full control. The latter were called to order by Secretary Lord of the Republican State Central Committee. Temporary officers were elected, the usual committees appointed and the convention adjourned until this morning.

The Harrison men were called to order by Chairman Strother of the State Central Committee, transacted some unimportant business and adjourned to meet to-day.

The action of Harrison men created little surprise, as it was anticipated. The genuine silver men, those who look upon the re-monetization of silver as of much greater importance than the success of any party, simply abide by their pledges and obey the instructions of the League of which they are members. They will not support, much less nominate, candidates for electors or for any other office who favors the election of Harrison. The Harrison men, on the other hand, prefer party success to silver re-monetization and are said to be intent on nominating Harrison electors. As the freedom of political opinion is guaranteed to every citizen the silver men and the Harrison men are pursuing the only course which honorable men in their positions could follow.

There is now no opposition to Francis G. Newlands, who is supported by the silver men, for Representative in Congress and he will doubtless be nominated to-day by acclamation. The people of Nevada, who are suffering from the depression caused by the low price of silver, are in no mood to be trifled with by politicians, and in many parts of the State old party lines are completely obliterated and the sentiment is unanimous for the Silver party electors.

CHOLERA IN NEW YORK BAY.

Twenty Deaths on Board the Steamship Moravia.

FRESNO, CAL., PEOPLE EXCITED.

Nancy Hanks Does a Mile in 2:05 1-4 at Independence, Iowa—The Wisconsin Democratic State Convention.

Fresno People Excited.

FRESNO, Cal., August 31.—But little that is new was developed in the McWhorter case to-day. A discovery that has set many persons to thinking is the absence from the city of two well known persons of bad reputation and who are known to have borne much ill feeling to the dead lawyer. One of those left the city some time ago, saying he was going on a trip, but none of his friends seem to know where he is. The second man was seen last Monday morning about 9 o'clock, but has not been around on the streets since then. It is believed by many that there are men now in jail on suspicion of being McWhorter's assassins. The Sheriff still denies that any arrests were made. The authorities are hard at work on the case, and it is stated by those who pretend to know that a net of evidence is being woven through which the assassins will not be able to break. A man has been found who saw a horse and wagon standing in an alley back of McWhorter's the night of the murder, and an important discovery was made in connection with a mask found on the scene of the tragedy. A very uneasy feeling prevails, and silence portends something important. There were rumors to-day that the jail would be visited by vigilantes to-night and Dr. F. O. Vincent, a murderer, and Mike Blume and Lane, two other murderers, as well as the men arrested on suspicion of being McWhorter's assassins would be lynched. From other sources it is learned that it is merely intended to expel all disreputable and criminal characters from the city and not make an attack on the jail. There is an under current of excitement, and the people are anxiously awaiting developments. The inquest was again postponed on account of Mrs. McWhorter's inability to be present. It will take place next Wednesday afternoon. The bar of this city met this forenoon and appointed a committee to draft appropriate resolutions on the death of McWhorter. Court then adjourned for the day out of respect.

Precautionary Measures Against Cholera in San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 31.—All incoming trains from Portland and Ogden will be inspected before the passengers will be allowed to enter California. Dr. Corcoran, President of the Board of Health, lives at Los Angeles and will look out for the Southern part of the State. Chinatown is being inspected and the city will be thoroughly cleaned.

Some Fast Racing.

INDEPENDENCE, Ia., August 31.—Nancy Hanks goes in 2:05 1/4. Quarters, 30, 1:01 and 1:34.

The driver of horse-drawn added a shining star to her crown to-day when she trotted on the world's famous kite track at this place in the unprecedented time of 2:05 1/4, clipping two seconds off the Chicago mark made two weeks ago. She was brought out at 2:30 and as soon as she was recognized in the loop cheering began. She looked well and her superior condition to-day was easily discernible. She took her first warming up mile gently, being only driven at a jog. About 4 o'clock she was brought out again and was received with the same cordial welcome. At just 5:15 they appeared on the stretch again, this time the applause was deafening. Handkerchiefs and parasols waved, voices were expended to their utmost and young and old and everybody cheered.

She now jogged up to the loop and turned to face the kite before her. The attempt was fruitless, and she came back and scored down again. Frank Starr had the runner Abe Lincoln near him, while Williams, with Ted Cotton, was waiting at the post. When she reached the wire she was going square and true, and Doubt nudged for the word. From the word "go" Nancy trotted as only Nancy can trot, as steady as clockwork and swifter than a bird, with a matchless swing gait. She reached the quarter pole in 20 seconds. "Too fast," was the verdict of the crowd. "Bud Doubt will never drive her too fast," was accepted by all as the truth. The half was reached in 1:01 and men who watched the figures on the dials found it hard to believe. The third quarter flag goes down at 1:34, and fearing she was lagging Williams closed up with the runner, Red Gordon. The act was useless. Doubt loosed her head and was urging her on gently with whip and voice. As she darted under the wire there was breathless silence. Watches consulted ranged all the way from 2:06. A cheer was sent up as the great horse was driven back to the stand, but a hush fell over all as the bell tapped. Starter McCarty announced the official time of 2:05 1/4, and his voice was drowned with yells.

The California wonder, Flying Jib, today broke the world's pacing record for a race, going in 2:07. He was barred in the pools. He was entered in the 2:20 pace for $5,000 and won in three straight heats, making the first and second in 2:10 and the last in 2:07. Reflector was second, Mary Cantilene, third and Barney fourth.

The 2:10 trot for $1,000 was won by Clara D. Frank Quick second, owned by Victoria McGregor of Alaska. Best time, 2:17 1/4.

Cholera in New York Bay.

NEW YORK, August 31.—The steamship Moravia of the Hamburg American line, from Hamburg, had 22 deaths on board during the passage to New York. The ship's doctor says the deaths were from cholera. Twenty were children and two were adults. Thirteen were natives of Poland, five of Prussia, three of Hesse and one of Austria. All were buried at sea. Aboard the Moravia at the present time there are three cases of measles, and two women recovering from slight attacks of the disease. The entire steerage comes from the infected district and to-night Dr. Jenkins is exceedingly anxious and worried over the outlook. The Moravia arrived last night at 10 o'clock and strange to say, notwithstanding her terrible record of deaths on the voyage, the captain passed through Sandy Hook, up the bay and through a fleet of steamships which was anchored off the boarding station. She did stop there but moved up several hundred feet north of the fleet, within about eight miles of the battery and there dropped anchor. No word was sent ashore all night, nor did any of the quarantine officers board her. It was early morning when they started on their usual rounds on board of the vessels anchored in the stream and the Moravia was the last one which the physicians, Tallmadge and Sanborn drew up alongside.

The captain of the Moravia was censured for continuing the voyage to this country after the cholera broke out on the ship. Dr. Jenkins reports the cases as genuine Asiatic cholera.

The Moravia is now isolated in the bay and will be indefinitely detained. The apprehension felt over this occurrence will have a harmful effect on the World's Fair, so far as foreign exhibits are concerned. It is suggested that the Exposition be postponed another year.

The City editor of the New York World and four of his staff of reporters, on the tow boat J. W. Husted, attempted to visit the steamer Moravia in the lower bay. They were arrested by Dr. Talmadge and brought before the Health Officer Jenkins. As they did not succeed in boarding the steamer the health officer discharged them.

All Renominated.

MILWAUKEE, August 31.—At the Democratic State Convention, after the adoption of the platform, the entire ticket was renominated in one speech made by Thomas F. Pringle of Milwaukee; Lieutenant Governor, Carl Jones of Racine.

Idaho Prohibitionists.

BOISE, August 31.—The Prohibition State Convention to-day nominated Jas. A. Clark of Bingham county for Governor. A complete State ticket, including Presidential electors, was nominated.

WHAT IS SCROFULA

It is that impurity in the blood, which, accumulating in the glands of the neck, produces unsightly lumps or swellings; which causes painful running sores on the arms, legs, or feet; which develops ulcers in the eyes, ears, or nose, often causing blindness or deafness; which is the origin of pimples, cancerous growths, or the many other manifestations usually ascribed to "humors," which, fastening upon the lungs, causes consumption and death. Being the most ancient, it is the most general of all diseases or affections, for very few persons are entirely free from it.

How Can It Be CURED

By taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, which, by the remarkable cures it has accomplished, often when other medicines have failed, has proven itself to be a potent and peculiar medicine for this disease. Some of these cures are really wonderful. If you suffer from scrofula, be sure to try Hood's Sarsaparilla. "My daughter Mary was afflicted with scrofula sore neck from the time she was 26 months old till she became six years of age. Lumps formed in her neck, and one of them after growing to the size of a pigeon's egg, became her Hood's Sarsaparilla, when the lump and all indications of scrofula entirely disappeared, and now she seems to be a healthy child." Dead in the Prompter's Box.

A correspondent relates the following melancholy incident, which occurred the other evening at the Theatre des Gobelins, Paris, during the presentation of "L'Oiseau Bleu."

"The performance was interrupted by a sudden cessation in the dialogue and the leading lady was seen to look intently into the prompter's box before the footlights. It happened that this was in the most interesting point of the third act, and naturally all eyes followed those of the leading lady. The audience of course could not see the cause of the interruption, but the artists on the stage noticed that the prompter had fallen asleep, and by an unfortunate coincidence the actress had forgotten her lines at the same moment."

"After waiting half a minute and the man giving no evidence of returning to consciousness, one of the actors stepped forward and gently shook him. There was no response, and looking closer those upon the stage saw that the prompter was dead. Without dropping the curtain the people on the stage remained in their various positions that the incident found them. The manager stepped to the front and made his explanation, the body was dragged down under the stage and a new prompter climbed into his place, while the play proceeded with only a three minute wait."—Boston Transcript.

Dangerous Pistol Practice.

In the colony Zepora Pereira lived an Italian colonist named Octavia Viale, who had been married but three weeks and was a wealthy man. His brother keeps an almshouse quite close to the colony. It appears that he was taking his wife to his house Sunday, the two riding in a cart, and when passing the house of the juez de paz (magistrate), naturally suspecting nothing, this legal officer came out of the doorway with a soldier, to whom he said, "I wonder if I can hit that fellow," whipped out his revolver and fired, shooting the unfortunate man in the chest, killing him instantaneously. The criminal was caught and the colonists were with difficulty persuaded from lynching him. He is now awaiting trial. The body of the dead man was buried next day, all the colonists attending. We hope the law will refuse to allow such a bloodthirsty villain to live to play any more of his murderous jokes. —Argentine News.

Pleasant Life in Kansas.

A big swarm of bees has found a comfortable lodging between the ceiling and second floor of the kitchen of Harrell's house, in Norton township. Mr. Harrell has quietly run a tube up through the ceiling and tapped the store of honey for table use. The flow of honey is regulated right at the table with an ordinary spigot. —Preston Plain Dealer.

An Added Horror.

An Episcopalian clergyman, who lost $40 by leaving it on a railroad train, has an added chill every time he thinks of the fellow spending a fifty cent piece mended in 1899. It is worth seventy-five dollars. —Philadelphia Ledger.

The Parting of the Ways.

Wilkins and Watkins were college chums and close friends. They had been hard students and had taken little outdoor exercise. When they shook hands and said good-by, at the end of their college career, they were in impaired health. Both had dyspepsia, liver troubles and troublesome coughs.

Wilkins had plenty of money, and decided to travel for his health. Watkins was poor. "I must go to work for my living," said he, "but I'll try the remedy that Robinson talks so much about—Dr. Pierser's Golden Medical Discovery."

In less than two years, Wilkins came home in his coffin. Watkins now in the prime of life, is a bank president, rich and respected and weighs 200 pounds. "The Golden Medical Discovery" saved my life at a critical time," he often says. "Oh, if poor Wilkins had only tried it!" For weak lungs, spitting of blood, all lingering coughs, and consumption in its early stages, it is an unequalled remedy.

"German Syrup"

J. C. Davis, Rector of St. James' Episcopal Church, Eufaula, Ala.

"My son has been badly afflicted with a fearful and threatening cough for several months, and after trying several prescriptions from physicians which failed to relieve him, he has been perfectly restored by the use of two bottles of Boschee's German Syrup. I can recommend it without hesitation." Chronic severe, deep-seated coughs like this are as severe tests as a remedy can be subjected to. It is for these long-standing cases that Boschee's German Syrup is made a specialty. Many others afflicted as this lad was, will do well to make a note of this.

J. F. Arnold, Montevideo, Minn., writes: "I always use German Syrup for a Cold on the Lungs. I have never found an equal to it—far less a superior."

Why the Car Went to Kiel.

There is not another place in the world where the emperor of Russia feels so secure and so easy in his mind as at the court of his father-in-law King Christian of Denmark. They were sitting together on the day of the golden wedding of the king, when the emperor, in the exuberance of his feelings of comfort, said that he wished he could think of something by which he could give to his beloved father a very great pleasure.

"You could not give me a greater pleasure," replied the king, "than I should feel at your resolve to go and pay a visit to the emperor of Germany." The czar consented, but he would not go to Berlin. Thus the meeting at Kiel was arranged. What all the cleverest moves of the diplomats of Germany had failed to accomplish a wise prayer of old King Christian thus easily brought about. —Chicago Times.

Speaking of Dates.

"Did you ever notice the curious difference in the sexes which is shown in the way a man or a woman fixes a date?" remarked a gentleman to a lady the other day. "You ask a man when such and such a thing happened, and he always answers, 'in the year so and so,' or 'about 1800 and something,' but the woman invariably says, 'About so many years ago,' or 'it was so many years after I was married,' or 'the year after Teddie was born,' and so on."

"Yes," replied his companion, "I have noticed it in myself. I feel that I am getting like the western widow who dated all her farming operations from or before 'the year I planted Jim,' which was her realistic way of referring to her husband's burial." —New York Tribune.

A Ten Thousand Year Clock.

Herr A. Noil, of Berlingen, Germany, has constructed the most marvelous timepiece that was ever evolved from the human mind. Calculations based on two years of solid going prove what the maker claims for his wonderful clock, viz., that it will run for 10,000 years without winding. Hands on the dial point to the time of day, the day, the week, months, seasons and years. It also calculates the changes in the moon and tells when the sun is "fast" or "slow." The clock is the result of five years of patient, arduous labor. —St. Louis Republic.

An Expressman's Trial.

A woman in Biddeford to whom a stove was sent by express requested the driver to get it up two flights of stairs for her. He did so, and then she desired him to set it up and start a fire in it to see if the chimney drew all right. This sent him home in a fainting, almost exhausted condition. —Augusta (Me.) Journal.
